

Cornelia Helfricht

... was born 1962 in Coburg, Bavaria.

She began studying singing, piano and violoncello during her preparatory school, and went on to graduate with honors in all three.

She started her career began at Studio Bayerische Staatsoper where she studied with Astrid Varnay.

Her international career lasted 20 years, beginning as a lyric mezzo – soprano and later singing the more dramatic repertoire of Verdi and Wagner.

She performed at international opera houses like:

Vienna Staats- and Volksoper, Oper Leipzig, Kunligan Operan Stockholm,

Nationaloper Helsinki, Oper Cagliari, Wexford Festival, Opera de Nice and others

A wrong method of a treatment by a dentist finished her career in 2006.

In 2011 she found the agency Helfricht Artists.

You can find more about her at www.corneliahelfricht.com

Her 20 years of experience in opera and concert and her enthusiasm for music have given her a comprehensive knowledge about all areas of the music profession.

Further Cornelia Helfricht has been active since 2015 as an organist at the Marienweiher Basilica and the parish church St. Michael in Stadtsteinach.